Letter no. TRC. 2803/46-47, dated [illegible] October 1946 from the Director of Food Supplies in Mysore Bangalore requesting sanction for the purchase of 100 tyres and tubes for the use of the lorries of the Food Depot

1) Submitted.

2) The Director requests sanction for the purchase of 100 tyres and tubes for the use of the lorries of the Food Depot direct from the Companies.

3) The number of miles done by each lorry from 1.11.45 is given in the Statement placed below Flag 'S'. The information regarding the mileage done by lorries no 5536 and 5518 has not been furnished.

4) The Approximate cost of the tyres & tubes will Rs 16, 680-0-0 (based on the figures given in file no A47-46 purchase of 55 tyres & tubes)

5) The question of making over the transport cars of the Depot to private agencies is under consideration separately. A copy of the Director's letter received in that connection is placed below

6) It is for orders whether in the above circumstances the Director may not be asked to re-examine the proposal. If these tyres & tubes have to be purchased, in view of the heavy cost involved it may perhaps be made clear by the Stores Purchase Committee after calling for quotations.

7) For orders

8) As it may take some time before the question of handing over the lorries to private agencies is decided and as tyres will be required

To
The Additional Director of Food Supplies, in Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

Sub:- Purchase of tyres.

I have the honour to state that there are about 46 lorries at Bangalore in working condition. A statement shwoing the number of miles done by each lorry from 1-11-45 and the number of tyres issued to each lorry from that date is also enclosed. Now since the tyres on the lorry require replacement, I request I may kindly be permitted to purchase 100 tyres and tubes in order to keep the lorries ready so that the work may not come to a stand still when they will other wise be good but for want of tyres. Hence sanction may kindly be accorded early for this purchase.

This is in continuation of my No. M.T. 68/45-46 dt 15-5-1946 for the purchase of 100 Tyres & Tubes

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
